what i have learned is that life is a journey and we are often challenged with all we see feel and experience through the paths that our journey takes us every journey is filled with its own twists and turns bumps and bruises yet it is the twist and turns the bumps and bruises that help us discover who we are and where we want to be all my life i have believed in god and his ultimate presence in all our lives however there was so much that had not been made clear to me about having a relationship with him through accepting the word of god and all the lessons that came through this new knowledge i found that through faith anything is possible at times what life presented challenged my faith i had to learn to walk according to my faith not my feelings or how things seemed or any thing that my eyes could see from this time in my life i wrote poetry according to what i was learning i consider something for your journey as my offering into the kingdom of god that more would understand the vital profit made to the inner man through the word of god though this is my first book i find that in my heart it will always stand as my greatest work as it is a book that i believe will make many journeys i pray it adds something great to yours god bless you

this book contains a realistic pattern of prayer for anyone who feels too busy to pray a modern reworking of the ancient monastic practice of prayer beginning with a simple call to praise on waking and finishing with quiet listening at the end of the day set your sights on heaven realities for you are on this kingdom journey the world is filled with many distractions that include customs traditions ideals religious and worldly observances superficial values entertainment and earthly pleasures and possessions that can cause us to lose sight of our kingdom s purpose when we are not mindful and intentional we begin to conform romans 12 2 advises us not to get involved with these worldly practices but instead to be transformed into the new creation in christ by renewing our minds setting our sights on the heavenly realities and pursuing our kingdom s purpose in a collection of inspirational poetry ametra edwards interweaves prophetic declaration and reflection scripture with verse to capture god s heart and creatively express his voice while encouraging believers to focus their attention above all else. These poems provide a spiritual platform for reflection, repentance, and renewal through kingdom truths inspired by the word of God. Set your sights on kingdom poetry, share faith-based verse that reminds believers to stay focused on what really matters: all things eternal.

For too long and for too many people, God has felt far away and disconnected from everyday life. In wide-eyed faith, the author invites readers to use journaling as a means to open wide their eyes to the hand of God in day-to-day existence. Allow the stories and thoughts of one follower of God to encourage you in writing your own and be blown away by the faithfulness of our ever-present God.

A resource filled with crafts, prayers, plays, pantomimes, banners, service projects, and more for children from preschool to middle school age. Mathison presents a host of new ideas to help school teachers, catechists, and parents alike to present lessons that add to the joy and meaning of the liturgical seasons.

Hymns and psalms without music.
